

I subscribe to XM satellite radio so that I do not have to tolerate the endless commercials that come over fm radio. I am willing to pay for this service and am deeply opposed to efforts to silence this form of radio. Please do not take this option away from me. The addition of weather and news makes my service even more valuable.